

Pledge to Resist FBI and Grand Jury Oppression

Anti-war and international solidarity activism is not a crime

FFI go to StopFBI.net

Twenty-three (23) anti-war and international solidarity activists are currently subpoenaed to appear in front of a Grand Jury in Chicago headed by U.S. Attorney Patrick Fitzgerald. Their "crime": Educating and organizing against U.S. wars around the world and standing in solidarity of peoples of Palestine and Colombia.

All 23 of the targeted activists have said they will not cooperate with this witch-hunt against the movements so many of us have worked to build. The U.S. Attorney is working to put these activists in prison. Whether some are indicted or others are jailed for refusing to testify, the threat is very real.

In solidarity with the 23, we will move forward in the work for our right to speak out, organize, and to stand in solidarity with those who want freedom. We will stand up to any escalation of the attacks on anti-war activists and international solidarity activists.

We will join in the National Day of Protest when any of the 23 anti-war and international solidarity activists are ordered to appear in front of the Chicago Grand Jury or indicted.
